

rereading the ruling. It is improving every time he reads. But I would ask this question. Can a Member during the course of a 1-minute make any reference to an activity of another Member, including the Speaker, which has taken place outside this Chamber?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Based on the precedents, only a factual reference can be made.

Mr. DURBIN. A factual reference can be made.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without any suggestions whatsoever of impropriety.

Mr. DURBIN. One further inquiry. Does this limitation in terms of reference to personal conduct beyond factual conduct apply to those who serve in Government and the executive branch as well as the legislative branch?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It applies to the President of the United States.

Mr. DURBIN. Does it apply to anyone else serving in the executive branch?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It applies to the President of the United States.

The gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. BONIOR. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker, and this will be the final comment by me on this issue. We are eager to get on with the business of the House. But there are some very fundamental issues, as we have heard on the floor this morning, at stake here. We are being told that the Speaker is being placed above criticism and comments.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is incorrect in drawing that conclusion.

Mr. BONIOR. The issue that we have before us in basically closing down voices. The RECORD of this House is being changed arbitrarily, committee meetings are being shut down prematurely. Private meetings on major policies issues are being held outside this institution. Members are being gagged on the House floor.

The question I have, Mr. Speaker, is this going to be the policy of the new majority in the 104th Congress?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Absolutely not. Absolutely not.

The gentleman has not stated a parliamentary inquiry.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The House will proceed with five 1-minutes per side.

CONTRACT WITH AMERICA

(Mr. CHAMBLISS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CHAMBLISS. Mr. Speaker, our Contract With America states as follows: That on the first day of Congress, a Republican House will force Congress to live under the same laws as everyone else, will cut one-third of committee staff, and will cut the congressional budget. We have done that.

In the next 85 days we will vote on the following 10 items. One, a balanced-budget amendment and line-item veto. Two, a new crime bill to stop violent criminals. Three, welfare reform to encourage work, not dependence. Four, family reinforcement to crack down on deadbeat dads and protect our children. Five, tax cuts for families to lift Government's burden from middle-income Americans. Six, national security restoration to protect our freedoms. Seven, Senior Citizens Equity Act to allow our seniors to work without Government penalty. Eight, Government regulation and unfunded mandate reforms. Nine, common sense legal reform to end frivolous lawsuits. Ten, congressional term limits to make Congress a citizen legislature.

This is our Contract With America.

DOUBLE STANDARD

(Mr. DEFAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that we can have two standards for speech, I do not believe that we can change the precedents and the rules of the House arbitrarily, and certainly in this Chamber we should not abridge the first amendment.

I just want to comment that I am not sure that most of our Members and most of the public can appreciate how serious a violation we think the Speaker has engaged in and how deeply we take this issue.

There are, I think, two different areas we have to look at to understand why we would charge this as a total betrayal of trust. Whether it is a total betrayal of trust because of his lack of judgment, or whether it is a total betrayal of trust because of deliberate actions I do not think we know yet.

Those are the words of now-Speaker GINGRICH regarding Speaker Wright on the floor of the House. He went on further to call Speaker Wright a collaborator and a quizzling, and all of these words were spoken after the ruling quoted by the Chair of June 15, 1988.

THE MORE WE KNOW

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, "I understand you want to write a book. I own a publishing company you know." Could these words have been uttered in the Rayburn Room just off the House floor?

Mr. Speaker, the more we know, the more we have to wonder, what went on in the backrooms of the Capitol. Only a full airing of the facts will determine whether something illicit took place. Only an outside, independent, counsel can tell us for sure.

What was said? What was promised? What is the deal? What is in the contract? It is time that an independent counsel expose the truth.

Mr. Speaker, do the Republicans have a contract with America or a contract with Rupert Murdoch?

No one serves two masters, Mr. Speaker. No one serves two masters.

LET US BEGIN TO SOLVE THE SERIOUS ISSUES FACING OUR NATION

(Mr. WHITFIELD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WHITFIELD. Mr. Speaker, the American people are looking to the 104th Congress more than any Congress in recent memory with hope and anticipation that we begin to solve the serious issues facing our Nation. Hard-working Americans from across the country have come to Washington to discuss tax relief for families, term limits, and unfunded mandates. Members of Congress have also traveled throughout their districts, their respective districts, talking about crime and welfare reform, a balanced budget amendment, and a tax policy that creates more jobs and better salaries.

But, Mr. Speaker, each day on C-SPAN we listen to some—not all, not even the majority, but some Members of the Democratic Party—and all we hear are attacks on our Speaker, attacks on what he teaches in his college course, attacks on what he writes, attacks on what he believes. If these senior Members of the opposing party spent more time working on substantive legislation and less time attacking our Speaker, this would be a better Congress.

DOING THE PUBLIC'S BUSINESS IN A TRULY OPEN AND PUBLIC FASHION

(Mr. BECERRA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BECERRA. Mr. Speaker, 2 weeks ago America was told that this body was taking action to ensure that just about everything we do is done in full public view. No secrets and nowhere to hide—and that is exactly the way it should be.

But now, in an ironic twist, it appears that there is an effort by some to silence any and all discussion of the Speaker's potentially lucrative book deal.

The citizens of this country deserve to know what kind of financial arrangements have been made in this book deal and what has been discussed behind closed doors that may affect public policy.

There are a lot of things we do not know about the book deal. And that has to raise serious questions and concerns about possible improprieties and conflicts of interest.
